

Statement of Fact

A Statement of Fact records the information you have given to Cliverton about you, your business and your business partners and directors. It must be read in conjunction with the enclosed policy wording and your schedule. This information has been taken into account when calculating the premium, as well as terms and conditions for your policy.

The Information You Have Provided

If any of the information within the documents provided is incorrect, you must advise us immediately. We reserve the right to change the terms and conditions, premium or withdraw this quotation. You are also required to advise Cliverton immediately of any other material circumstance (any piece of information that would influence the judgement of an insurer in deciding whether to accept the insurance risk and if so on what terms) or change throughout the policy period.
